

Make Sure You Object to "Traffic Calming" in Bickley

Bromley Council have recently circulated proposals for a new "traffic calming" scheme in Bickley. But they may enrage drivers rather than pacify them. The proposals have been prepared with almost no input from local residents, and we suggest you should object to many parts of the scheme. See overleaf for more details and how to object.

